 - Telangana State Government employee

 - Homeguard
 - Widow / Divorced / Judicially Separated Women
 - Service as NCC Instructor
 - Retrenched Temporary Employee of Census Department
- ✦ In several instances as the above, the age concession due to each Candidate is uniquely different and can only be perfectly calculated after seeing the Original Certificates during Certificate Verification.
- ✦ Further, as already mentioned above, the Data of Candidates including their Eligibility of Age attains finality only after the Certificate Verification process is over.

In any process of Recruitment, the Recruitment Board ideally endeavours to see to it that only genuinely qualified and eligible Candidates come into the Zone of Consideration for Selection. It is natural that certain proportion of the Candidates get filtered-out at every stage of any Recruitment Process. Also, Candidates who are not eligible / qualified should not come in way of genuinely qualified and eligible Candidates claiming unsustainable and unreasonable excuses. In this regard, the TSLPRB at every stage of the Recruitment Process has been taking utmost care to ensure ultimate fairness, transparency and impeccable integrity. The Board has been communicating with the Candidates through the Website: www.tsprb.in and also in an individualized manner through e-mail and text messages wherever necessary. The Candidates are advised not to fall prey to the sensationally misleading information that is at times circulated in media / social media.

A Candidate who sincerely prepares for the Recruitment Examinations should always rely only on the information given by the Recruitment Board through the Website, Press Notes, Individualized Messages and should not be disturbed by motivated campaigns of misinformation done with vested interest.

Beware of Touts and Cheats

In any Recruitment Process, towards the final stage, Cheats and Touts become active and try to make money by deceiving gullible Candidates with false promises. In this regard, these Criminals customarily employ certain characteristic methodologies like –

- (a) Seeking deposit of a considerable amount of money in a Joint Bank Account or with a mediator, which will be taken away fully by the Broker if the Candidate is successful in getting a job (obviously the Broker is making money by playing on the chances of the Candidate)
- (b) Pretend to make fake phone-calls or set-up sham meetings with their accessories / associates, to make the Candidates believe that the Broker has an Insider-Contact who is influential enough to get the job. In some instances, the Candidate will be taken to Secretariat / Government Offices and will be made to wait outside while the Tout pretends to be meeting Senior Political / Bureaucratic Functionaries
- (c) Tell the Candidates that there will be quotas of so-many Posts / Vacancies set aside for Senior Political / Bureaucratic Functionaries which can be bought by paying large amounts of money in bribes
- (d) Use forged / fake documents and videos, e-mails and website-posts and other forms of communication, to make their false claims look authentic

Candidates are strongly cautioned to beware of those unscrupulous elements / touts who try to dupe innocent people / unemployed youth with false promises of providing them jobs. Candidates are warned not to believe them or give any money to such people. If they do so, such Candidates automatically become ineligible for the all the recruitment opportunities of the government in the present as well as future.

Reward up to Rs.3 Lakhs for Information on Touts and Cheats

The Board is staunchly committed to the recruitment of the best and most deserving Candidates, based purely on their merit in the Academic and Physical Tests by strictly following the Rules. In this regard, the Candidates are alerted to pay no heed to any false, sensational or unsubstantiated rumours. Several Special Task Teams have already been deployed across the State to check the nefarious activities of the swindlers and frauds who try to hoodwink prospective victims. Simultaneously, Candidates are advised to inform the Police or TSLPRB Authorities or contact us on 93937 11110 or 93910 05006, to pass on information on Cheats / Touts / Brokers. Depending on the quality of the information, the Board will reward those persons giving reliable and workable information, with a suitable monetary incentive extending up to Rs.3 lakhs. Identity of the persons giving such information will be kept highly confidential. The above Information is being issued in the general interest of the Candidates.
